

Kentucky Office of Homeland Security (KOHS)

Office of the Governor, Andy Beshear

Kentucky Office of Homeland Security

Executive Director: Josh Keats

josiah.keats@ky.gov

Fusion Center Director: Chris Allen

chrisw.allen@ky.gov

1(866) EYE-ON-KY
(502) 564-2081
FusionCenter@ky.gov

TEAM
KENTUCKY™

Kentucky Office of Homeland Security Overview

KOHS Grants

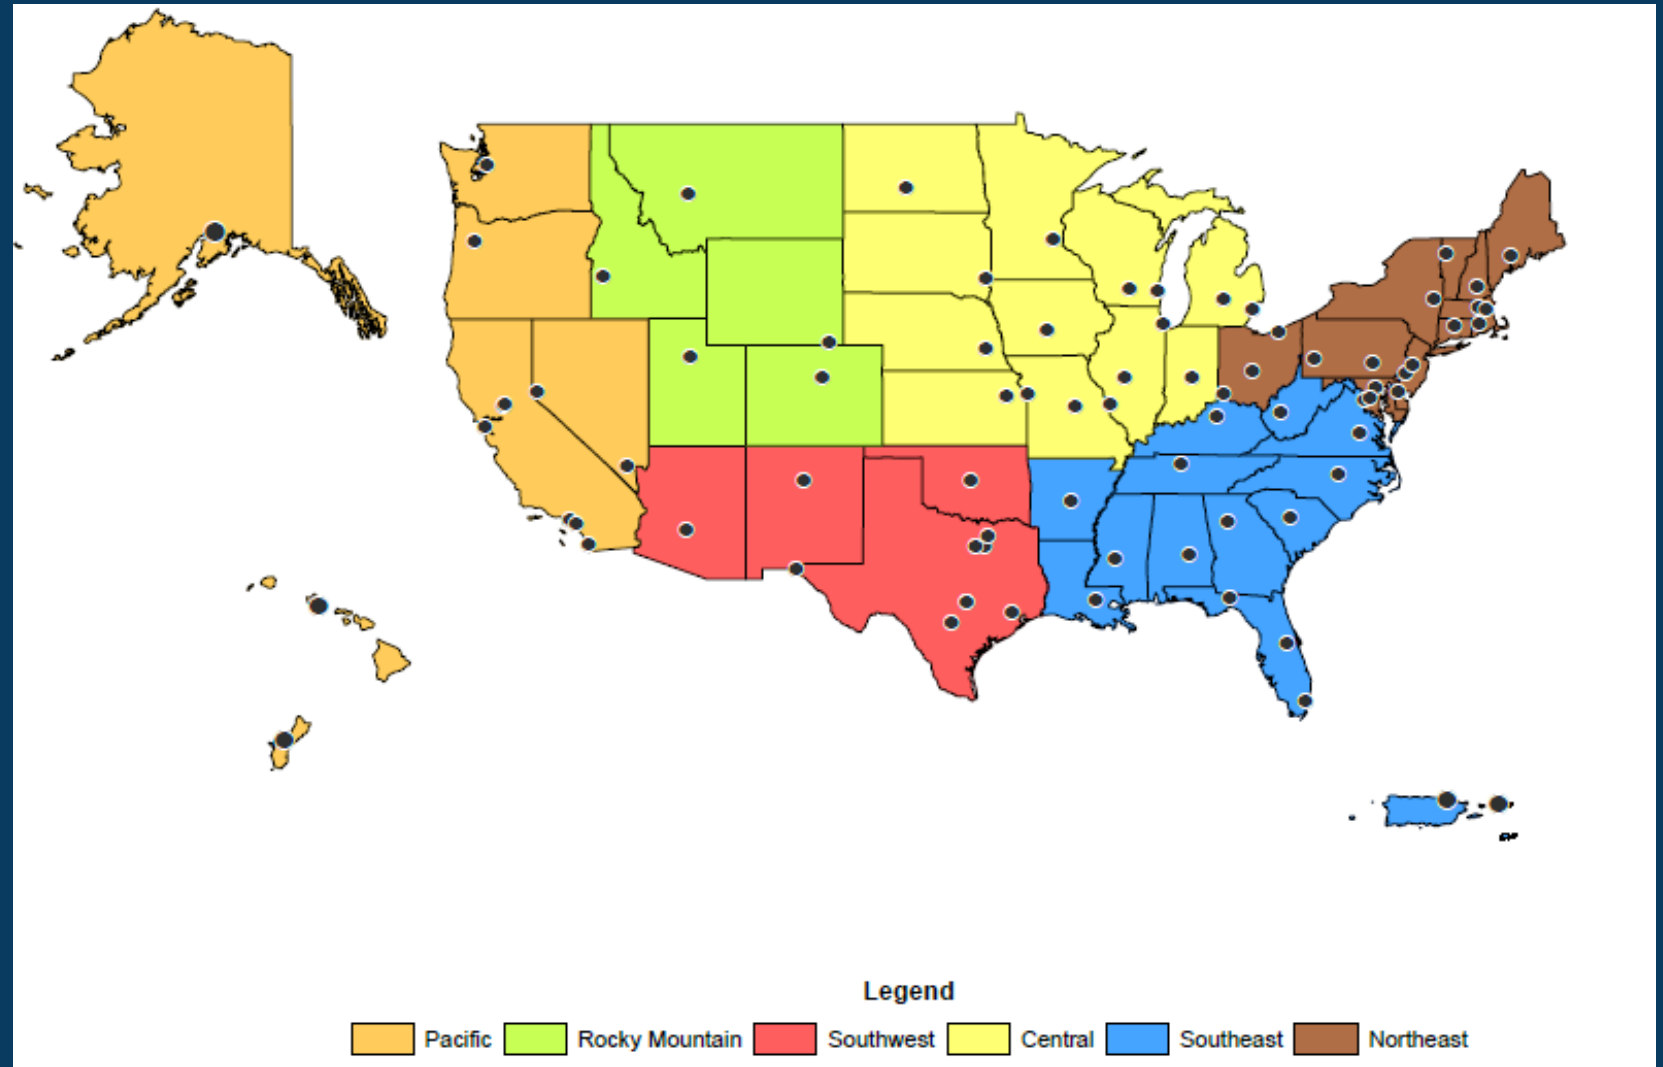

- HSGP
- NPGP
- LEPP

Kentucky Intelligence Fusion Center Overview

80 Fusion Centers

- Every State Has at Least One
- Most are LE Integrated
- Terrorism Prevention Focus
- Information Sharing is Primary Mission

Kentucky Intelligence Fusion Center

KIFC Mission

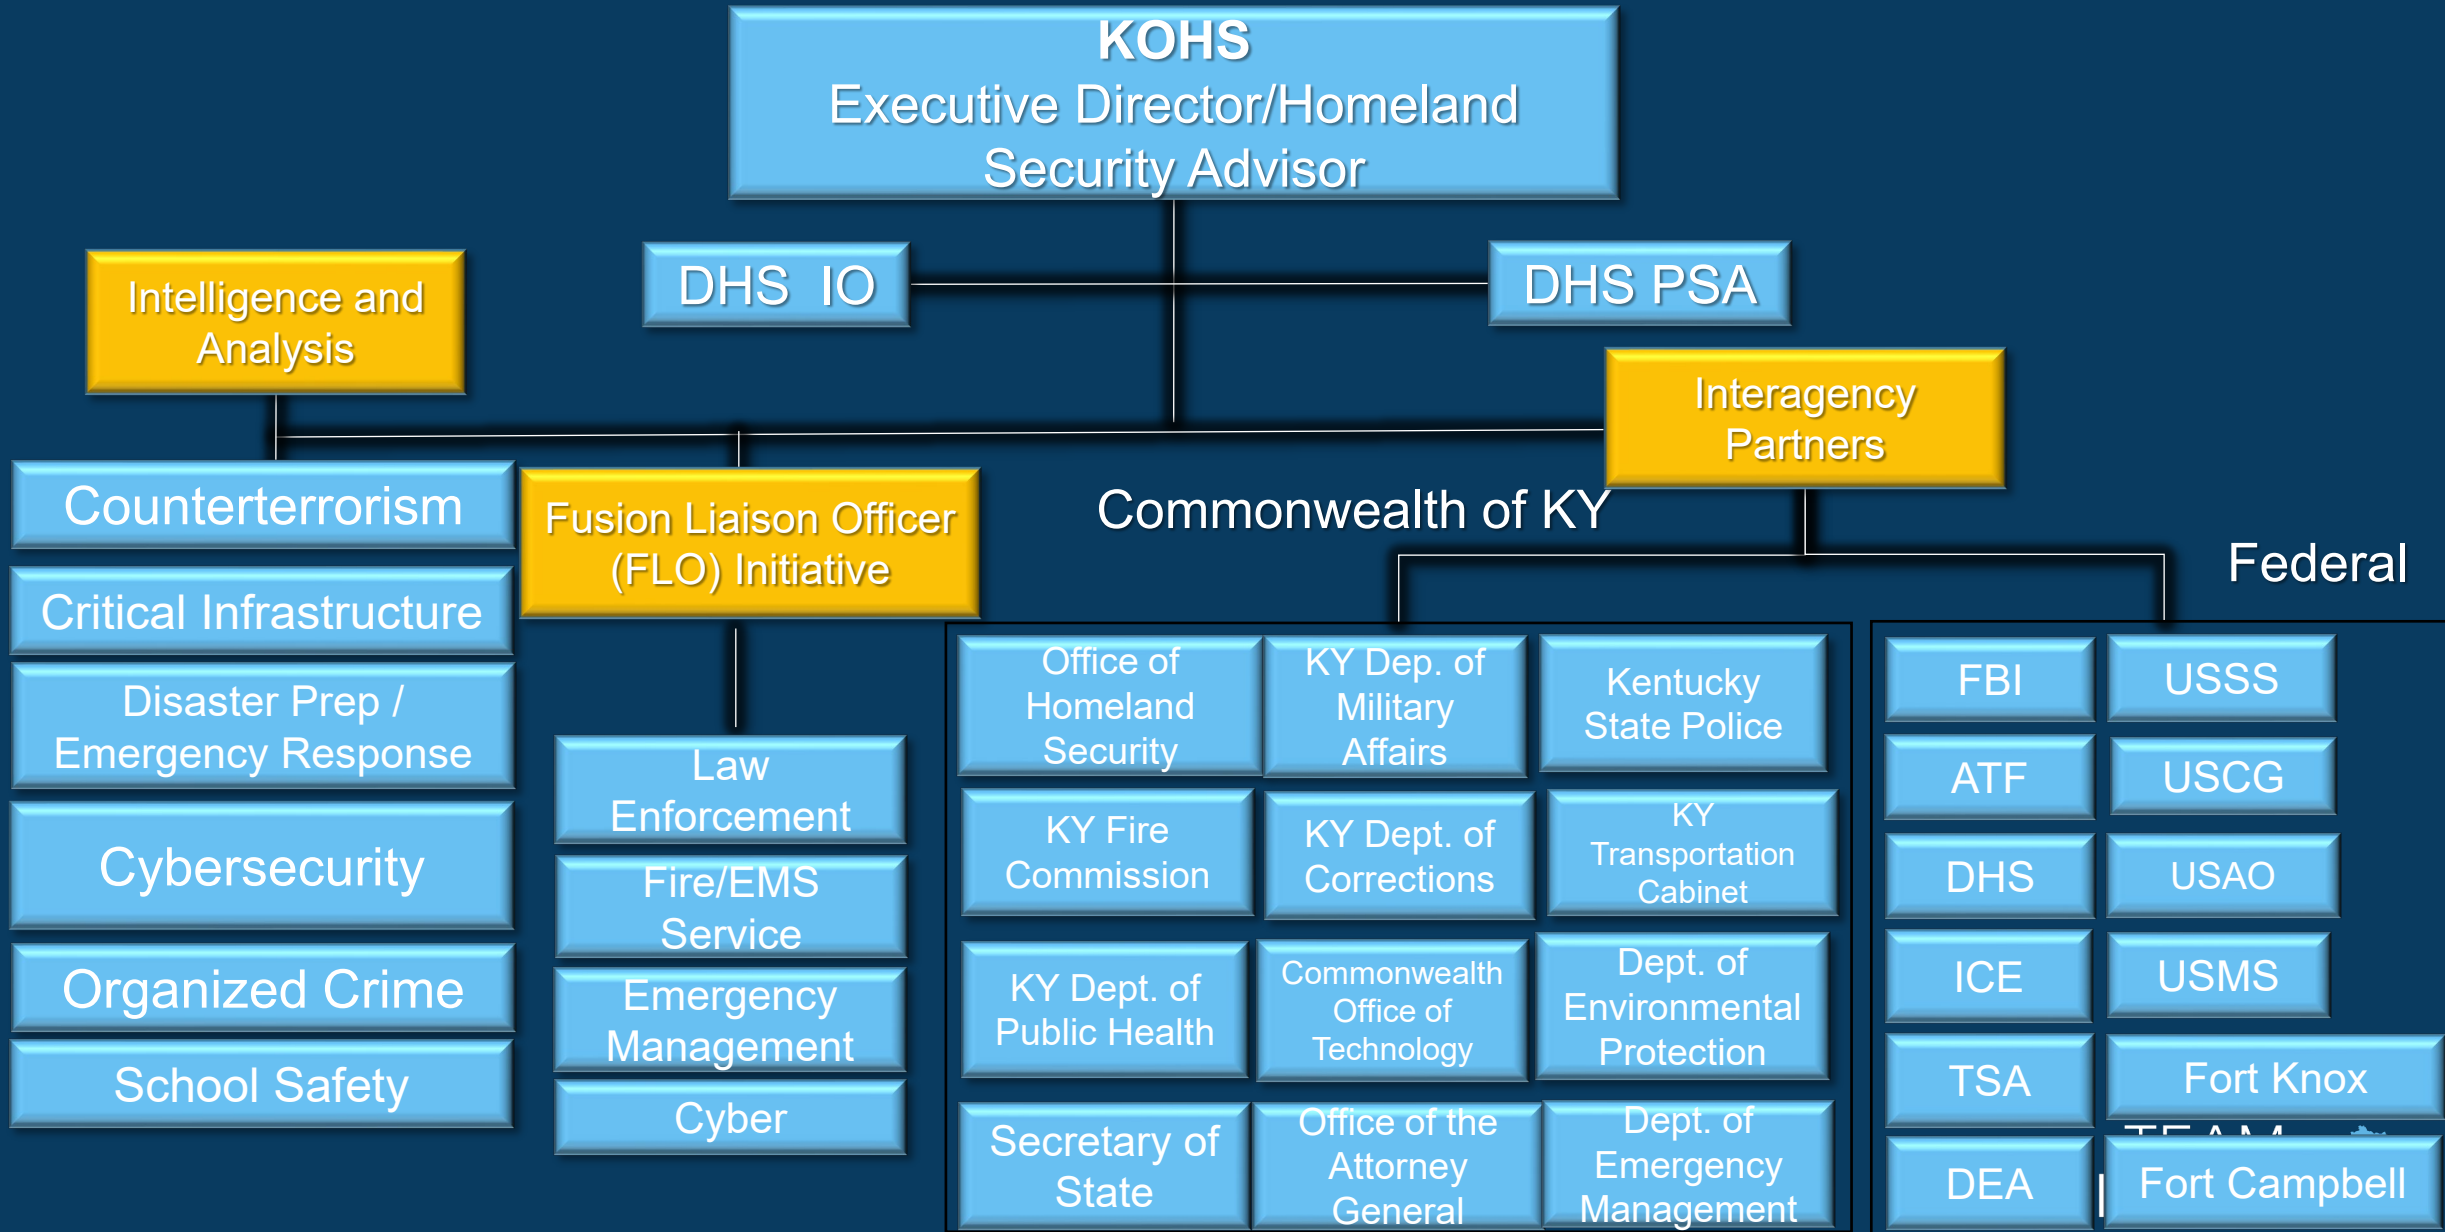

Collaborate to improve information and intelligence sharing among federal, state, and local law enforcement and public safety agencies, as well as the private sector, to analyze and address threats

Translation: Receive, analyze, and share all-source threat information and intelligence

Intelligence should include analytical statement and be timely and actionable

Kentucky Intelligence Fusion Center

KIFC Priority Areas

- Counterterrorism
- Critical Infrastructure Protection
- Disaster Preparedness/Emergency Response
- Cybersecurity
- Organized Crime
- School Safety
- Emerging Technologies

KIFC Services

- Special event threat assessments
- Special topic/threat reports
- Training exercise support
- Vulnerability assessments – Cyber/Physical
- Presentations/briefings
- Connectivity with state and federal agencies
- Access to classified information
 - * Cleared and with a need to know
- Suspicious activity reports (SAR)
- Fusion Liaison Officer (FLO) Initiative

Fusion Center Threat Reporting

Fusion Center Training

Intelligence Production

KIFIC develops and disseminates intelligence products relevant to criminal/terrorist activity and threats in or to the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

- Kentucky Critical Infrastructure Weekly
- Terrorism Open Source Weekly
- Annual Threat Assessments
- Situational Awareness Bulletins
- Suspicious Activity Reports
- Quarterly Summaries
- Special Event/Venue/Facility Threat Assessments
- Joint Intelligence Products

Fusion Liaison Officer (FLO) Initiative

Definition:

A FLO is any peace officer, firefighter, federal agent, military investigative personnel, or private sector employee working closely within the public safety/homeland security community, approved by their agency head and KIFC.

Function:

Serve as their organization's primary point of contact regarding homeland security matters and to serve as a conduit of information between their organization and KIFC.

FLO Training

Kentucky Office of Homeland Security (KOHS)

Office of the Governor, Andy Beshear

Kentucky Office of Homeland Security

Executive Director: Josh Keats

josiah.keats@ky.gov

Fusion Center Director: Chris Allen

chrisw.allen@ky.gov

1(866) EYE-ON-KY

(502) 564-2081

FusionCenter@ky.gov

TEAM
KENTUCKY™